THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

At the age of 31 you can slip into overdrive as you begin to reap the benefits of the changes that have been so much a part of your life for the past two or three years. The basic structure is in place for you to expand your influence and harvest some initial results. There may be a hint of overconfidence, but your potential for good fortune is strong, and an optimistic attitude attracts success. You have powerful loyalties to the family and believe in the value of emotional bonds and a strong base which provides a secure emotional foundation for nurturing those you hold dear. You have access to enormous reserves of feeling, which enable you to empathize with those who are vulnerable and need comfort. This will reflect itself in fortunately relationships generally, because of an ability to attract people of high status or intellectual capacity, as well as cosmopolitan types. The current year will bring beneficial partnership developments.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life strategies for consolidating your earning power and getting paid what you are worth begin to succeed, though it can be hard going. Money is in short supply, but now is the time to put in place an economic framework that will give you security well into the future. These new influences started growing around January - 2019 and will ebb out around April - 2022. At the current time you know what your talents are, but you may be unsure whether you can live from them. You can. But you still need to conserve your resources and economize. Part of the key to prosperity is self-worth, and whilst success is as yet unproven you can facilitate the process by being restrained in your economic demands until you have established a firm foundation.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from February - 2020 to April - 2021 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between April - 2021 to May - 2022. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 31. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- Times and conditions converge to enable you to consolidate your position at home and your status at work, just as long as you continue to work hard and shoulder responsibility. This is an excellent time for planning and building.
- You embark on a stabilizing period in your life path and in important relationships. These are testing times, but with commitment and restraint you build a solid framework for growth. In this period you mature and attract greater responsibility into your life.
- You discover how challenging life can be and have to deal with old fears about competence. But you exude a natural authority and end up realizing just how resilient you are. You shoulder responsibility and create the conditions for personally and professional success.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

NEW LIFE GOALS BEGIN

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 31 is the development of sensitivity and your protective urges. It is a time when bonding is important, particularly to the family. Building up a home, nurturing children, and taking people under your wing are important motivations, as you seek to find a way of expressing strong emotions and needs, both in yourself and in others. Your moods are likely to swing considerably in the months ahead, as part of a process of emotional development.

This theme channels your need to express yourself fully and project your identity onto the stage in some way. Nevertheless you will have to make a number of compromises to accommodate the needs of partners and your lifestyle.

A need to build security and nurture family attachments is high on the agenda in the year ahead, which is dominated by enhanced emotional sensitivity.

Creativity and self expression heighten your self-awareness and you are happy to assume a charismatic personal profile and put your reputation on the line. This enhanced self-confidence increases your powers of attraction, perhaps leading to romantic involvement or some kind of recognition or acclaim.

This is an influence which you will want to channel into money-making ventures, generally increasing your assets and sense of personal worth. An appreciation of solid values, from sensory awareness of your body and sexuality, to an appreciation and enjoyment of material benefits, will make this a year of consolidation.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

Establishing the course

In the period from January 2021 to February 2022 there is an urge to stabilize both the direction your life is going and the important relationships in your life. You can't always get what you want, but you get what you need. In accepting this, you recognize the limitations that are an integral part of life, and willingly accept them. Only by having efficient structures on which you build can stable growth take place, and this means making a long term commitment both to a life path and perhaps also a relationship. What works at this time is cultivating an element of conservatism and restraint, concentrating on one thing at a time, and limiting ambitions both in your career and your love life to what is do-able.

Personal and relationship boost

Generally speaking this is a period of expansion and good fortune for both relationships and your personal life. You are infused by optimism, and this is born out by favorable partnership developments. This is especially apparent in the period from December 2020 to March 2021 when things flow smoothly in many areas of your life. Now is the time to go into the world with confidence; you can expect the support of influential people and mentors, and you will find that your own grasp and understanding of events reflects your innate wisdom. Travel is favored and brings you together with people who are good for you. Partners can be encountered abroad or when studying, and they too may be in an expansive phase of their life.

There are times in your life when it is not enough to simply register and adjust to influences that come from the outer world. Sometimes the time comes to change the actual framework of your life. Perhaps this means adopting a new lifestyle or appearance. Perhaps the time has come to redefine who you are through who you choose to live with. The following influence shows a unique opportunity to move your life into another gear.

New life responsibilities

If your birth time is precise, then you will encounter a challenging set of circumstances in the months around October 2020 which somehow encapsulate negative expectations that have dogged you in the past. In reality this is a test of maturity, and you now discover that you have the ability to rise to challenges far greater than others could manage. You realize that the difficulties you have encountered in life have prepared you to take a special responsibility onto your shoulders. Now is the time to take that responsibility. Your ambitions are aroused and you discover amazing inner determination and perseverance. Obstacles are overcome slowly but surely and you rise in status and exude a new authority that others have to respect. This is also a time for a committed personal relationship with someone who takes life equally seriously, or with a professional partner who is there for the long term. Existing relationships have to prove they can stand the test of time.

The challenges and responsibilities in this respect key in to your inborn lack of confidence in yourself and the way you appear to others. This strengthens the resilience and determination that you have developed over the years to overcome insecurity.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 31 are:

- the need to establish a framework for your life and relationships, which you can do by perseverance and commitment.
- fortunate developments that widen your horizons and enhance partnership. An excellent time for travel and study.
- a time of amazing challenges when you discover just how strong your backbone is. This leads to important advances in relationships and business.
- a time of deep feelings and sensitivity, when you build up your home and family and create strong emotional bonds.

Career

SHOULDERING PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 31 is the pursuit of dynamic new initiatives where you mobilize your independence and leadership abilities. It is likely that there are battles to fight, and that the competition is fierce, but that is what can make this year exciting and interesting. Professionally this period is less about cooperation and more about winning.

This theme is very much connected to your need to express your ideas. Unfortunately your thinking tends to run at cross currents to the needs of those that decide matters, which can mean juggling a variety of agendas... not least, your own private ones.

You feel energized and competitive and will channel your drive in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

You will find yourself in quite tense situations that require decisiveness and immediate action. Generally it is a good thing for you to take independent initiatives, and if conflict arises, to fight to win.

The main focus is on dealings with fellow professionals and taking on leadership responsibilities. This is a time when success is in your grasp; all you have to do is accept the mantle of power and wield your authority.

Certain challenges arise.

One factor that can undermine success right now is a sense that your career direction does not harmonize with who you are as a person. Yet as you try to stamp your identity on proceedings, you open yourself to accusation of arrogance or self-centeredness. Other prominent people may even work against you because they feel they are competing for the same honors.

The essential expression of this will be through the urge to put your stamp on family and the local environment.

One of the major challenges is the readjustment necessary in a climate that is strongly affected by restructuring, which can mean that old friends, partners and colleagues disappear and new ones arrive. There is a likelihood that you encounter people with whom there is a tense psychological relationship – it's like meeting your shadow side. Worn-out methods must be eliminated.

This specifically activates a need to transform your working life, clearing up issues with colleagues that may have been psychologically oppressive.

One factor that can undermine success right now is the experience that powerful obstacles are in your path – and they may be – which in turn undermines your confidence. Authorities tend to be against you, or your goals at least, and you may be stopped in your tracks. Patience and perseverance are the only way forward.

As relationships bring major challenges at this time, you need to embrace responsibility to others, rather than seeing them as limiting you.

One factor that can undermine success right now is a tendency to overestimate your capacities and expand without taking account of the conditions. You tend to discount advice and plunge on regardless, which can easily put you at odds with influential people. Expansion is possible, but it is wise to constantly seek impartial advice.

This will be expressed in the working environment, where you expand your sphere of influence and attain a stronger position for delegating duties.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Professional expansion and consolidation

In the period from January 2020 to October 2021 there are excellent conditions for growth if you are prepared to work hard and shoulder more responsibility. On the home front this is a time to establish foundations and build a strong framework for the family, even if challenges loom large for a while. In your career people in authority are willing to give you their support in return for your commitment. This is also a good time for you to consolidate your own status and gain recognition for the effort you have put it. By keeping up the good work a convergence of quite good fortune strengthens your position and it is now you can reap the benefits of earlier commitment.

Boost in career and family

As far as your goals are concerned there are particularly favorable developments in the period from March 2020 to February 2021. Influential people smooth the path for you and leverage you into an advantageous career environment. Your own understanding and wisdom help you expand your influence. The focus is on a greater overview, on the international rather than the local. Good fortune not only affects career and promotion possibilities, it also gives great opportunities for property, family expansion and happy domestic events. This is an optimistic time for you, your parents, and family members generally – a time to buy property or enjoy a wonderful holiday abroad.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a time when things fall into place both at home and in your career. There is still hard work to do, but the benefits of past efforts now become apparent.
- favorable developments both domestically and professionally due to an element of luck and a positive attitude to life
- a time when your competitive spirit is stimulated by career challenges, leading to dynamic new initiatives.

Personal development

WISDOM AND EXPANSION

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

and in the 10th House this relates to your need for equilibrium and personal balance, in connection with your career goals and ability to handle authority.

An important feature around the age of 31 is an urge to create a personal dynasty and establish yourself as a key player in the family. Parental issues come to the fore, as you assert your independence and autonomy, and place your personal seal on your home. You become the central person around whom the family revolves, and on a larger scale you can play an important role in the local politics of your environment. This is a process of rediscovering your roots and heritage and redefining the role you want to play in perpetuating this heritage. An excellent time for children.

Certain challenges arise.

It is during this period that you are at war with yourself, or others, as you strive to channel your energy and drives into activities which people are dead set against. You may be accident prone and run into more trouble than necessary because you are not afraid to jump into the fray. On the other hand you have to stand up to the playground bully. You hone your fighting skills now, and can achieve a great deal, but it is a good idea to step away from unnecessary conflict.

This is channeled into your professional life, which is a very combative area for you this year.

It is during this period that you that you have the opportunity for insight and expansion, but you do tend to set yourself up against those who act as if they know better than you. You do not want to be in the wrong, and you cannot accept injustice. But you may respond by acting in a haughty or superior manner and end up manifesting the very behavior that irritates you in others.

You are in a period when major transformations of your personal character are on the agenda. You cast off falseness, throw away the mask, and assert yourself uncompromisingly. Your desire to be totally authentic can also lead you to be ruthless - for you, being true to your inner nature is non-negotiable. People can take it or leave it. The tunnel is long, and dark... but light starts to emerge at the end of it.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you can gain perspective on your mission in life and draw the most from the people and associations that have formed your past, whilst embracing new alliances with people who hold promise for your future. New environments evoke new perspectives for personal development.

In this process you need to work things out in seclusion, rather involving others in a cooperative process.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Insight brings influence and success

It is at this time that your insight and understanding peak to bring a sense of meaningfulness and personal satisfaction in life. Travel and intellectual development stimulate your confidence in your self and your abilities, and this has a snowball effect in creating success. You have the good fortune to meet wise people, or mentors, who can guide you into new areas of knowledge and understanding. This is the time to capitalize on your assets – a calculated expansion now will surely bring good results, especially in the period from February 2021 to December 2021. Your optimism is infectious in this period, and people seek you out to enjoy both your humor and your insights. Spiritual interests are also favored as a deeper understanding of the meaning and direction of your life dawns.

Overreaching yourself

The period from January 2020 to December 2020 is a time when you encounter intellectual authorities who are in a position to make judgments on your character, and if you over-estimate your strength or capability, this judgment can go against you. On the one hand you expand your influence, either through intellectual achievement or travel, but on the other, there is a tendency to go over the top. The essential thing is to guard against hubris. There is no harm in thinking positive and being intellectually competitive, but without groundwork you will be unable to hold on to the success you are hoping for. You are attracted to mentors, but you may later feel that you misjudged people. Watch out for inflated egos.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 31, you now reach a stage in the process of your personal evolution that enables you to integrate certain character traits that stand you in good stead for the future.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

Astride the crossroads

In the period around March 2022 you find yourself at a crossroads in terms of your mission and direction in life. Hard choices have to be made regarding your social bonds and the environment you have been nurtured in, and meetings with new individuals and groups can draw you away from your usual surroundings because of the promise of growth rather than stagnation. This process can be part of a longer period of reorientation connected with events around ultimately leading to a sense that you are more in tune with your destiny. Right now you have a view over the evolutionary process, perhaps over many lifetimes, that has brought you to this point, and you realize it is time to let go of the trapeze and switch over to a new one, leading to an unknown future.

This activates a major life theme for you, which is the dilemma of how to shake off anxiety and insecurity, and work on building up a solid material foundation for your life.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time when insight into your identity brings influence and success. Mentors help you expand your understanding and travel widens your horizons.
- a tendency to overrate yourself and fly, Icarus-like, too close to the sun.
- a time of transition as you redefine your mission in life, letting go of old attachments and following the lead of new individuals and groups.

Feelings and security

EMOTIONAL RESTRAINT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Aries and in the 4th House this relates to your tremendous emotional spontaneity and dynamism, and your attachment to home and family will be reflected by your need to recharge in a secure haven.

Emotionally the age of 31 can be said to reflect a time when you are in a playful and creative mood, which is good for both children and activities which bring you into the limelight. Your childlike qualities come to the fore, and there is a strong desire for recognition. Romance and celebration are high on the agenda, but you are very sensitive to rejection.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in your material life. Financial security has top priority, and your highest motivation is to feel settled and secure, so that you can be giving to those you feel a bond with.

One thing that affords considerable satisfaction for you now is the sense that your activities and emotional life afford you considerable freedom to experiment and innovate. Those you have an emotional bond to, particularly in the family, give you the space to develop other attachments that bring personal growth.

The year ahead brings an important transition in your emotional life, when you are no longer content with vegetating in comfortable surroundings and enjoying the fruits of your labors along with your family. Instead there is a longing to get out and about, to reach out to others and interact. This change happens in December 2020. Your mental development assumes much greater importance for you, and this means that you are likely to attend course, learn languages and generally meet new people who awaken a whole new world of the intellect. This is a cultural flowering process that brings its own dilemmas as you may have to deal with splits and dualities that are difficult to reconcile.

Whilst this is a period when your working life and collegial relationships are a major area of focus, there is a change of emphasis around September 2021. At this time the absorption in your working life lessens, and you become far more interested in personal relationships. It is in this area that emotional demands are now made, and your interests lie in attuning yourself to the feelings of people you relate to on a one-to-one basis and taking consideration for their needs. Naturally this is the kind of time when commitment to a partner is crucial, along with the adjustments in your family life that are a part of this process. You learn to think in terms of partnership, rather than having priorities for yourself as an individual. You now have the opportunity to develop people skills and you will benefit from having a partner.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around December 2020 there are career opportunities that can bring increased contact with the public and the provision of services that cater for collective needs in some way. This is also a good time for family matters, for example creating better conditions for children or improving living conditions.

- Around March 2021 there are fortuitous contacts that stimulate you tremendously. You meet people of like mind on your travels, and the resultant exchange of ideas boosts the flow of ideas. You just have to communicate what you learn, and this information is valuable for your work, especially as regards education and networking. You are probably on the move at this time.

Your ideas and thoughts are centered on career and professional advancement, and particularly the role communication plays in your success. The mental evolution process you are now going through will bring new professional contacts and new skills with which to advance.

- Around May 2021 there are interesting developments in your love life. Perhaps there is something of a split between family demands and romantic needs, yet this is a very loving period. Romance is certainly in the air, but it may be necessary to travel to overcome the distance that separates you from your chosen partner. Socially too, this is a very active period, and you may find yourself doing a considerable amount of family entertainment. Still, love can lead you to stray from domestic duties.

For you, with love there always comes a sense of longing, and sometimes an element of sacrifice. Love at this time stimulates your dreams, and awakens your need for a transcendent romantic experience.

- Around September 2021 you emerge from a period which has been very practical, concerned with your work and bonds to people at work, and now focus on those relationships what really mean something for you, particularly marriage and important partnerships. Emotional issues come up in your interaction with those you care for, and you feel more vulnerable than usual. This is the time to develop sensitivity to people who are willing to involve themselves with you, tuning in to their needs and getting wise to the emotional reactions you evoke through your behavior.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Overcoming immaturity

The period from February 2020 to December 2021 is not a time when you feel particularly comfortable or secure, but you are willing to lift responsibility for the sake of others and to be there when you are needed. This is a test of your maturity and ability to be self-sufficient rather than dependant. The family will lean on you now, and you will be a rock. In dealing with your own personal emotions, this is a time to be strong and self-contained rather than expressing your feelings for all to see. Emotions come and go, as do trials in life, and the strong individual weathers ups and downs with equanimity. You can build up strong foundations in your home now; all this requires is hard work and determination. This is a period when you grow up and conquer immaturity.

Expansion of comfort zone

A period of expansion in your personal life takes place from March 2020 to February 2021 which brings a general sense of well-being, partly based on a deeper understanding of the unconscious factors that motivate your actions. Your comfort zone expands – you are more comfortable with yourself, and more comfortable with your role in a family that is likely to be extended considerably. If you wish enlarge your home, move, or invest in property, good fortune tends to come your way without too much effort. Parents in particular can be very supportive, as will your environment in general. You have the confidence and faith to give empathy and support to those in need, and can show those people who are attached to you just how to enjoy life and have a good time.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time when you cultivate self-reliance and work hard to build a mature emotional life, which enables you to provide a shoulder for others to lean on.
- a time when you experience a boost in confidence and happy developments at home and in your family life.
- a time of transition when you let go of material attachments and concerns about security and strive to develop your mental capacity.
- a time when work priorities recede and are replaced with a need to nurture and improve emotional relationships.

Mental Development

PROLONGED LEARNING AND STUDY

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Libra and in the 10th House this relates to your grace of expression and diplomatic talents, which you channel into career interests where contacts, ideas and communication are paramount.

During the age of 31 your mental focus is on deep emotional issues, especially in intimate relationships. You are willing to confront psychological issues and investigate all things hidden so that you can ultimately transform communication in an honest and open way.

Your mental abilities are channeled into areas to do with home and family – your roots and foundations. This is where your concerns are, and many of your thoughts center on domestic matters. Use your connections and persuasive powers to get what you want.

Your natural wisdom and understanding permeates communication now. You can act as a teacher or mentor, and generally throw yourself in to learning ventures or travels that open up mental horizons.

Certain challenges arise.

There are a number of disruptions in communication, education and travel during the course of the year, partly because you are restless and want excitement and change. You are fascinated by new and unconventional ways of thinking, but you can alienate more conventional souls if you reject their ideas outright.

This is connected with the pursuit of your unique individual ambitions, and exciting changes in your career.

Some factors help.

You are able to express yourself with unusual harmony and grace during the course of the year and are more attuned to aesthetic values. This brings good results in all social and educational matters, partly because your diplomatic abilities and good taste come to the fore. It is an excellent time for dealings with women, particularly sisters.

Relationships are brought about through your network during the course of the year – you meet loved ones in places of education, or in your neighborhood environment.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Mental discipline

The period from February 2020 to December 2021 is a time when you rise to the challenge in connection with education, communication and developing your intellect. This is the time to dedicate yourself to learning, and to overcome any reservations about your mental abilities. Planning, practice and determination are all that are needed to get your message across. Recognition and success do not come easy – if it did you would not have to work so hard, and hard work, at least mentally, is what life is about right now. You can work on and overcome any weaknesses in connection with the way you relate to others if you put your mind to it. This is an excellent time to study and write, even if there is an element of repetition or boredom in it. The more you discipline yourself, the better you get.

Expansion of contacts and mental skills

The period from March 2020 to February 2021 is a time of success for you in all your mental endeavors, and this is a major contributing factor to personal happiness and satisfaction. Travel is favored, and brings extraordinary pleasures. Great teachers appear and expand the boundaries of your understanding. You make progress in leaps and bounds. Anything to do with foreign cultures and languages is crowned with success. Your knowledge base and intellectual understanding peak, and people are eager to hear what you have learned. Relationships with people of like mind, and true partnerships, are favored at this time, with agreement easily being reached on a shared agenda.

Your mental evolution is a product of the people you encounter during your life, who evoke certain qualities in you, as well as your contact with institutions of learning and educational media. The lessons you learn give depth and breadth to your personal message to the world. This year new opportunities arise.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 31. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Mental crossroads

You stand at a mental crossroads around August 2020 when you detach yourself from people who in the past have played a role in your mental development. At the same time you encounter new people who seem to have some kind of connection to the collective and help you plug in to trends for the future. There is a sudden perspective on the mind... a tunnel of time from past to future. Even on a geographical level you may be connected by a tunnel or channel that separates two quite different cultures or eras. You get involved in groups who work with communication and information, but remain detached too. In this sense other people act as catalysts for your development, without them actually gaining influence over you. This can be part of a mental development process that has its parallel around .

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time when you rise to a mental challenge and develop your knowledge and communication skills through hard, concentrated work.
- a time when you have the great good fortune to expand your sphere of interest through travel, a mentor, or study.
- a time when groups act as a catalyst for mental change and transitions.
- development of your ability to see beneath the surface and discover the hidden issues.

Values, Love and Relationships

OVERCOMING RELATIONSHIP CHALLENGES

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Sagittarius and in the 12th House this relates to your need to have intellectually stimulating partners who widen your horizons , which you will express with a sense of longing, finding more succor in inner devotion than outer romance.

In relationship matters you have a need to adopt a low profile during the age of 31. You will not be able to insist on the satisfaction of your needs – quite the opposite, it is your duty to attend to the needs of others. The key word here is service – keep expectations low and take pleasure in helping others. This is a year where you want to attend to practicalities rather than be distracted by romance, and your working relationships can be more important than partnership.

You build up a relationship network during the course of the year, either in your local environment, during education or as a part of communication projects. A partner can be found in these areas. You are interested in developing your aesthetic skills and cultural interests, and partnerships function best with someone with who you are on the same mental wavelength.

There are no limits to your creative and romantic fantasies at this time. You discover a deep well of love in yourself, and this can give a great boost to creativity or compassionate ventures. However your judgment in relationships is unrealistic, and though romantic dreams seem to be fulfilled, in the end love will not live up to your expectations.

Certain challenges arise.

If expectations in your relationships are unrealistic, then you will experience disappointment. The antidote is not to ask for what cannot be given, or give your heart to someone who cannot reciprocate. If there is loss, then it is OK to be sad... indeed sorrow can put you in contact with a collective energy which leads to spiritual renewal.

This activates a need to refine your views and opinions, and tune in to higher forces that give meaning to you spiritually.

Some factors help.

Not content with being limited by one-to-one relationships, you are attracted to exciting groups who represent a new set of social horizons, and who can take you to places you have never seen before. This leads to a radical renewal of your values. Exotic people from fringe cultures constitute a magnetic attraction, leading you to walk a while on the wild side.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Self-reliance in relationships

In the period from March 2020 to January 2022 you develop a certain self-sufficiency in relationships, learning that love must be given from a position of strength, not need or dependence. If you feel dissatisfied or rejected at this time, it is part of a development process that requires taking responsibility for your emotional needs. The more you ask from others, the less appreciated you will be. The more you give, the more you will be loved. If relationships cannot stand the test of time now, you have the determination to go it alone, though this is also a good time to meet someone, perhaps an older person, and make a commitment. Financially this may not be a time when money is plentiful, but it is an excellent time for creating the conditions for wealth through economic planning and restraint.

Good fortune in love

There is a period of success for you both as regards your economy and your relationships from April 2020 to February 2021, and this brings a blossoming of confidence about your attractiveness and value as a person. If you are looking for romance, you will surely find it – especially if you travel to a romantic place. This is a good time for relationships with people from cultures you admire. You are particularly attracted to wise and cultured people who can teach you something. Generally you can afford to expand, spend more and really appreciate what life has to offer. Now is the time to both harvest and enjoy the fruits of efforts that you have made in the past, and to generously share your good fortune with those you love.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 31, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of relationship that enables you to integrate new values in your life through encounters with individuals or groups where you form a bond of one sort or another.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 31. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

The welding of bonds

It is at this time of your life that you get involved in a relationship or social circumstance that has great significance for the way you relate for years into the future. There is a heavy commitment, and the hand of karma weighs strongly on your shoulders. You could forge an unbreakable bond with someone or some group, but the responsibilities this entails can be very challenging. There is a sense of inevitability – you cannot escape. You must now commit in the long term and accept the challenges ahead. You gain strength of character. You develop moral fiber. You build economic, romantic or social foundations for the future. There may be times when the pressure makes you feel unhappy or depressed. You may suffer from a sense of being unloved or unpopular. All this must be taken on board – you will come out of this period of relationship challenge with a strong, self-sufficient character. This can be part of a longer process connected with events around April 2023.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a time when you develop self-reliance in your relationships, and learn to look after yourself rather than be dependant on others for appreciation or financial support.

- a time when you can enjoy the good life. Experiences with friends and lovers, especially when traveling or experiencing culture, boost your confidence and self-worth
- the development of difficult social or relationship circumstances
- a diffident or hesitant attitude to love where the focus is on practicalities.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

GOING FOR VICTORY

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Libra and in the 10th House this relates to put across your own aesthetic view and judgement and take initiatives in relationships, and this is channeled into great career drive, and the urge to overcome professional competition.

As regards personal drive the age of 31 is a year when you are in a fighting mood, ready to take risks to get ahead. Advances are made rapidly and you move from one competitive situation to the next. On the one hand you are courageous, but on the other rather impetuous.

Your energy and will is channeled into areas connected with authorities and your career. You work extremely hard to prove yourself, but at the same time you risk antagonizing people above you by ill-considered or provocative behavior.

This is a year when your integrity is challenged by pushy individuals – something you may regard as an insult and provocation. You may maintain a dignified attitude, but you need to also adopt a fighting stance.

Certain challenges arise.

You have to deal with power battles and psychological warfare, which can deplete your strength and challenge your will. You can show weakness when dealing with issues at a therapist, but don't in relation to the outer world. There are factors in relationships you cannot control – avoid obsessing.

There are frustrations whichever way you turn, but ultimately they serve to build up your willpower. Authoritative or dominating men can be a pain, but you should avoid kicking against the pricks. Build up muscle power through determined training.

You are not inclined to let others have their way with you, and you pursue your own agenda, beliefs and convictions. Whilst this can be a year of intellectual growth, insights are only won after a battle. Avoid foisting your beliefs on others or arguing about matters of personal principle.

Some factors help.

People and groups you are involved with look to you to take energetic initiatives to create change and progress. You discover a new zest for life and throw your energy into being with the people who mean the most for your future.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Believing you can do it

The period from January 2021 to December 2021 is a time when you are full of courage and enthusiasm, and even if there are delays and setbacks, you plunge on undeterred. There is the spirit of the pioneer infusing your being; you see the distant horizon and spur on your horse to reach it as soon as possible. With such an undaunted spirit, success comes easily for you, and nobody has any desire to stand in your way. You are convinced about what is right – for you and probably for others too. Neither are you afraid to use your persuasive powers to get what you want. This leads to an expansion of your influence and greater leadership prowess. The competitive spirit is aroused; physically this can bring an interest in travel and sports, intellectually you want to learn more, debate, and excel at what you do.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time of excitement and adventure when you vigorously expand your horizons and have undaunted confidence in succeeding at what you do.
- a dynamic and competitive attitude to progress, with a tendency to take risks.
- a dynamic and competitive attitude to progress, with a tendency to take risks.

Collective trends

REVOLUTIONARY MACHINES

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Force majeure

There are times when it is healthy to be reminded of just how thin the veneer of civilization is. We live our lives in a bubble of security, where unpredictable forces have been tamed and the primitive roots in our nature concealed. This is a period when this veneer is stripped away, as you are confronted by events in the world around you that show just how precarious existence on this planet can be. Any event can trigger this new consciousness – personal, social or political – and this leads to an appreciation of just how valuable the peace and security that you have in your life is. This is a time to confront and challenge your own anxieties, and dramatically raise your psychological awareness. This trend lasts June 2020 to May 2023 and it is an excellent time for an unconventional approach to personal growth, via shamanism for example, or group transformational events.

An ocean wave

This is a period when you have a chance to channel the collective energies expressed in society in new and innovative ways that can reach out to mass consciousness in some way. Approached passively you may simply get caught up in an exhilarating collective experience that awakens you to just how powerful forces in nature and in society are. Approached actively you may personally be able to apply your own creativity to influence large numbers of people. This is also an excellent time for spiritual awareness and change, when you may acquire a greater sensitivity to unusual abilities like clairvoyance, channeling, meditation and more. This trend, which lasts June 2019 to May 2022, can be likened to surfing on huge ocean breakers; it can be difficult to keep your feet, but if you do, it is extremely exhilarating.

Allure of power

You gain insight into some of your deepest secrets in the period January 2021 to November 2021 although this can be quite an uncomfortable process. The forces of the unconscious can both empower you and render you powerless, depending on how much you identify with your inner demons. This is also a time when strong ideologies hold sway in the collective, and you may encounter a very persuasive individual or group that tries to enroll you into an extreme set of beliefs. The allure of riches and power is difficult to resist, but for high-rollers the abyss awaits. Resist being hypnotized by the promise of power and use this period to understand the primeval urges that motivate us all on the deepest level.

During the age of 31 you have reached a phase of your personal evolution when the efforts of the last decade or so bring tangible results that can be harvested. Emotionally you have matured to such an extent that you need a deep and giving relationship with another... a bond which highlights the contrast between your own personality and that of a partner. Materially the investment you have made in your own creativity bears fruit that is now ripe for the plucking. Your life is full - it is like the rush hour - and every facet of your ability to relate is highlighted as you negotiate your path through the crowd. This focus on relationships can also bring crisis and change as you learn to see through the eyes of others and achieve objectivity in your own life... even illumination. The years ahead will show how you handle this process and reveal the quality of the harvest.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is on finding a balance between your own personal needs and the needs of others. A crisis atmosphere in your important relationships leads you to the understanding that satisfaction at this time of your life comes when priority is given to relating, rather than independence. You can learn about yourself through the eyes of another, and this knowledge brings you further along your evolutionary path.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when collective events impinge on your own life and awaken anxiety about just how little control you have when fate is at play.
- a time when your ability to tune in to collective forces is awakened. Either you are swept along, or you develop your talents to attune yourself to mass consciousness.
- a time when you encounter the temptations of power and are open to the influence of very persuasive people with a secret agenda.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 32 you can expect change in the following areas:

Your potential for growth peaks, especially in connection with home and family matters, leading to a fruitful period of expansion and joy. You open up to a world of possibility, yet at the same time feel protected and confident. Good fortune.

You feel you can comfortably take on more work and responsibility and this gives you added weight and influence. There is a growing confidence in your capabilities, which reflects itself in a willingness to live out your ambitions, not dramatically, but through careful planning.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.

THE ASTROLOGICAL ASPECTS

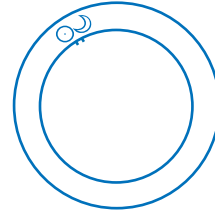

The Conjunction

(0 degrees... orb allowed: 12 degrees)

Key word: Fusion

This aspect is in effect when two planets are close to each other, normally in the same sign. It represents the fusion of planetary principles.

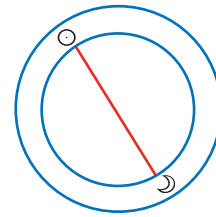

The Opposition

(180 degrees... orb: 10 degrees)

Key word: Separation

This aspect - when two planets are in opposite signs - shows a split or division between the needs shown by two planets. There is also an attraction between opposites.

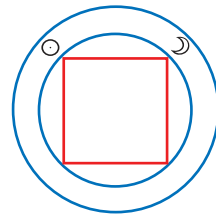

The Square

(90 degrees... orb 6 degrees)

Key word: Tension

This aspect occurs when planets are at right angles to each other in the chart. It shows two needs at war with each other. This brings considerable dynamism, but a lot of trouble.

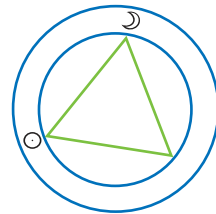

The Trine

(120 degrees ... orb 8 degrees)

Key word: Harmony

This aspect occurs when planets are a third of the circle away and normally in the same element. This shows the harmonic confluence of needs, bringing happiness and harmony.

The Sextile

(60 degrees... orb 4 degrees)

Key word: Creativity

If the circle is divided by a six-pointed star, the sextile would take place on two of the points next to each other. There is both dynamism and pleasure connected with this aspect.
